that of indicating reviewers by enclosing their names in parenthesis immediately after the designation of books reviewed, will be familiar from earlier volumes. Reviews are regularly listed by name of modern author, editor, translator, etc. Thus, e.g., Buechner's edition of Lucretius rev. by D. C. Swanson at p. 352 will be listed under "Buechner" rather than "Lucretius," but a page reference to the review will appear in the Subject Index under "Lucretius."
